

$3 million ready for new sewers

Massachusetts has $600 millions in federal money, ready for the new sewer programs, Rep. Fred Cain told the Selectmen Tuesday evening, and he can get $3 millions immediately for Wilmington. This was because Wilmington has an approved set of plans ready when the money became available - the sewer that is proposed to run to the site of the new High School, northerly of Salem Street.

As the program is being approved, Cain said, money will be available to construct a sewer from Eames Street to Silver Lake, going up the line of the Boston & Maine Railroad.

No money would be available to go from Silver Lake to Salem Street, he said. This he said, was up to the industrial people who are in North Wilmington.

Cain said that he believed, if there was some fast action, that he could get $\frac{1}{2}$ millions for Wilmington sewers - that is if more plans were available.

The selectmen greet the news enthusiastically, but then ran into what seemed to be a snag, on the last quarter million used for sewer extension - the town had never gotten its money back.

An apparent snag developed during the conversation, though it was. spent $250,000 to construct a sewer from the Woburn line to Eames Street.

National Science Foundation award

MARK PAVELCAK, son of Prof. and Mrs. Joseph Pavelcak of Powderhouse Circle, a junior at Wilmington High School, has been selected to attend a six week summer course at Wartburg College, Iowa, in a program sponsored by the National Science Foundation. Mark is one of four recipients, on a nation wide scale, selected.

The program came to his attention through a news release written by Dr. Eisenberg, high school principal, which appeared in the pages of the Town Crier.

Town Meeting June 23

Wilmington will have a Special Town Meeting, starting at 7:30 p.m. on June 23 in the Herbert C. Barrows Auditorium of the High School. The selectmen called the meeting to have the town raise funds for payment of Blue Cross/Blue Shield for town employees, costs of which have risen. $148,000 will be needed for the town employees.

There are, at this writing, nine subjects for articles in the warrant, with a tenth being a strong possibility. There may be more than that, because the Warrant is being held open until 4:30 p.m. next Monday, in the town hall. In other words citizens and officials may submit articles for the warrant until that time, in the town hall.

The articles, as discussed last clue: 1. Funds for town employee health insurance (Blue Cross, etc., $148,000). 2. A proposed cost of living increase for Department Heads of Wilmington, to cost $24,900. Town employees got a cost of living increase in the annual town meeting. Department heads were not included.

MOSQUITO PROGRAM

Each evening, five evenings a week, the Town of Wilmington sends out a team of men from the Tree Department, to spray against mosquitoes. This generally starts about 8 p.m. and lasts until 12 a.m.

Unfortunately, there are many children who feel it is fun to chase the spraying vehicle. They endanger themselves in doing this. The hour is late, and there is a good chance that they might be killed by a passing motorist.

The parents of these children will have to make their choice. Stop the kids from chasing, or we will stop the anti-mosquito program.

Stop sign voted

A stop sign is to be erected on Harnden Street, apparently near the triangle that exists at Glen Road.

The board of selectmen voted Tuesday evening for such a sign to be erected on the right side of Harnden Street.

The vote followed a discussion of several weeks ago, in which traffic conditions were discussed. The selectmen would like to have the light pole in the triangle moved, and the bushes and shrubs removed. The bushes and shrubs have been planted by a private party on what is town property.

Public Consumption of Alcoholic Beverages

Paul J. Lynch, Chief of Police, hereby calls attention to the bylaws of the Town of Wilmington, and in particular Chapter 5, Section 12:

Town bylaw

An amendment to the Revised Bylaws of the Inhabitants of the Town of Wilmington is hereby adopted by adding to Chapter 5, Public Regulations, Section 12, Consumption of Alcoholic Beverages, as follows:

- (a) No person shall consume any alcoholic beverage while in or upon any street, public place, public building.
- (b) No person shall consume any alcoholic beverage while in or upon any private land, building, or place without consent of the owner or person in control thereof.
- (c) For the purpose of this bylaw, alcoholic beverages are as defined in Chapter 138, Section 1, of the General Laws.
- (d) Alcoholic beverages being consumed in violation of this bylaw shall be seized and held by the Chief of Police until the case is disposed of by courts, after which such beverages shall be returned to the person entitled to their lawful possession.
- (e) Whoever violates this bylaw shall pay a fine of not to exceed $10.00 for the first offense and not to exceed $25.00 for the second offense; and the fine shall be $50.00 thereafter.

Massachusetts General Law

Chapter 272, Section 40A:

Sale, Delivery or Possession of Alcoholic Beverages in Public School Buildings, etc.

Whoever gives, sells, delivers or has in his possession any alcoholic beverage, except for medicinal purposes, in any public school building, or on any premises used for public school purposes and under the charge of a school committee or other board of officers, shall be punished by imprisonment for not more than thirty days or by a fine of not more than one hundred dollars, or both.

These two laws, the bylaw and the General Law, are being published as a public service to familiarize you with the laws that the Wilmington Police Department are required to enforce.

Through our efforts to acquaint you with these laws and the consequence of violating same, it would be my sincere hope that these laws would not be violated, thereby making the task of enforcement unnecessary.

TO THE YOUNG PEOPLE OF WILMINGTON: THINK before you DRINK! And remember: WHAT you drink is YOUR business - WHERE you drink is OUR business.

Finally, remember that WILMINGTON BELONGS TO ALL OF US. Therefore, LET US KEEP WILMINGTON A TOWN FOR ALL TO LOOK AT WITH GREAT PRIDE.

New Ponds and Old

In three real estate developments, at this time, ponds, new and old, are more than just a subject of conversation.

There was, and is a pond southerly of Salem Street, which is now a part of Corum Meadows. There is a pond in Glen Acres, which is on the site of an old meadow. There is a pond, in land off Park Street, and near Gowing Brook.

In each case the developers have enlarged and dug those ponds deeper. In each case there are town officials who may be described as upset at the turn of events.

It might be well to summarize.

The pond southerly of Salem Street has been there for generations. It was dug out, it was enlarged, according to prepared plans. It is deeper than was originally planned. There were hundreds of tons of iron ore in that pond.

If someone will drown in six feet of water will he drown in twelve? It is on record that the developer did offer to construct a fence.

The pond in Glen Acres. It is a part of what was known as Kelly Meadow, to those in Wilmington seventy-five years ago. Kelly Meadow is the peat bog off Glen Road, through which the old Wilmington & Andover Railroad was built.

When the pond was planned, the Massachusetts Department of Natural Resources established a depth of 3½ feet. No one else seems to have established any depths at all.

Three and a half feet would still leave peat in the bottom of the pond. Perhaps the action of digging deeper is of good purpose, in that there will be fewer weeds, growing from a peat bottom. A child can easily drown in a mess of weeds - just as easily as in a deep pond.

This isn't to provide answers - just some observations.

The third pond, near Gowing Brook, has been described as "awful" by one person. Others observe that it is fenced in, and that the developer is filling up the pond. Eventually, they feel, there will be no pond there.

Possibly there are some valid answers, in that pond area too. Let no one jump too hastily.

Seven years of Morris

For those who may remember, today is the seventh anniversary of the appointment of Sterling Morris as Town Manager of Wilmington. He first appeared in a Memorial Day Parade, seven years ago.

Seven years of service is a long time in Wilmington. Morris now holds the record for longevity as a Town Manager, in this town.

There have been difficult periods. There has been a share of strife. But right now there seems to be nothing but mutual friendship and respect between the Town Manager and the Selectmen.

The Town Crier thinks it is time for a little self-congratulation.

Public Consumption of Alcoholic Beverages

On this page is an advertisement placed there by the Town of Wilmington. It is intended as a sort of warning, particularly to the young people, to say that if they must drink, do so in private.

There are many who will agree with the warning. There are many who might over-stress the message. This particular message seems to be aimed at those who sit in parking lots and drink beer. The Wilmington Police, for the past fortnight, have been warning a lot of individuals who were consuming alcoholic beverages in public.

There are many adults who are unhappy about the situation. But there is something to be said for the younger generation, who are the "subject" of the warning.

It is now legal for those 18 and older to drink.

There is no place in Wilmington where such an event may be conducted legally, inside, other than a couple of restaurants.

Some readers will perhaps scream to high heaven, but if a place were to be set aside, where boys and girls can meet, and in a social way have a few beers, the town might be better off. The young people have no place they can meet and act as socially responsible persons.

Perhaps an opportunity should be offered. Perhaps it may fail, but offer it.

An indoor meeting place for those 18 to 21 years old, where they can have responsibility might work. It could possibly be better than the present system, where young people have a cruiser pull up alongside, and they are told to "scram."

There is a site or two available. The Town Crier recommends to the Selectmen and to the clergy that some thought be given to the subject.

PAUL MORRIESY: A junior at Shawsheen Tech conducts soil tests at Burlington Mall's recent four and garden show. Paul, a Wilmington resident, is majoring in chemical lab at the vocational facility. He and other students tested approximately 3,000 samples of soil for area consumers during the recent show.

Wilmington men complete emergency training

Arthur V. Lynch, Jr. of the Wilmington Police Department and George Anderson, Jr. of the fire department were among twenty-eight persons who recently graduated from Winchester Hospital's Emergency Medical Training program. Formal graduation ceremonies were held at the hospital.

The emergency medical training program, for all private and public ambulance personnel, now required under Massachusetts state law, involves 81 hours of instruction. Six hours are spent in the hospital's emergency room and four in the recovery room observing medical care techniques and treatments. During the thirteen weeks course, more than a dozen physicians instruct the trainees in various aspects of emergency care.

Upon successful completion of the course and the successful passing of a written examination, trainees become registered emergency medical technicians and receive a certificate from the National Registry in Ohio and the right to wear the official EMT shoulder patch on their uniforms.

Dr. Hugh F. McCarthy, chief of general surgery at the hospital and hospital coordinator of the training program presented the graduates with their certificates and patches.

3. Transfer a sum of money, from the Reserve Account, for the coming litigation in the 774 court case - the "snob zoning" apartment complex case. $5,000 has been transferred by the finance committee, to date, to be used. How much more will be asked for is not known as of this time. No money is being spoken of, for the board of appeals, which is, in one sense the board being sued.

4. The old South School lease - to the Wilmington Skating Club, has to be renewed.

5. An article asking to create a Department of Public Works, in Wilmington.

6. An article asking that a fee schedule of home occupancy inspections be established. The state is now in control of all building permits, etc., and the local building inspectors are much busier as a result. One item in the state control asks that there be a home occupancy inspection when homes are sold. Some municipalities have established a fee for this inspection, one of which is reported to be $25 (Reading).

Presumably Wilmington will be asked to establish such a fee.

7. An article asking for a Civic Events Account - presumably for the events of the 200th Anniversary. $7,000 will be asked for this.

8. An article to create the position of public safety director.

9. An article asking for a vote of bonds, for sewer funds, in connection with the money being raised by Rep. Fred Cain.

There may or may not be a tenth article, depending on circumstances. Last January an article was submitted to the selectmen with a lot of signatures, asking that the town take by eminent domain all the land along the Ipswich River where it is proposed to erect low and moderate income housing, under the provisions of Chapter 774 - the snob zoning bylaw, so called.

The article was not submitted in time to be included in the warrant for the annual town meeting, but there was a promise that it would be included in the next special town meeting.

When the selectmen inspected the article Tuesday evening, it was noted that the words "not later than March 1975" were in the article. The selectmen voted to ask the town counsel for a ruling as to whether or not that article should be placed in the warrant for the town meeting of June 23.

It is also possible that the sponsors of that article may prepare and submit another - or the same one updated, with new signatures.

Pack 136 gained fourth

Wilmington's Cubscout Pack 136 placed fourth in the "Best Participating Unit" at the Boy Scouts of America Exposition held on Saturday, May 17 in Lowell.

Pack 136 chose space as its theme.

Their booth was constructed by pack leaders, and the space theme consisted of star charts of winter constellations, various airplane models including the famed Kitty Hawk by cubs of Den Two; spacecrafts including the Russian model Vlostok made by the Webelos, and an assortment of handicrafts, rockets, space helmets, puppets, robots, etc. by Cubs of Dens One through Five.

A bicentennial display, Pioneers Always consisted of a miniature covered wagon symbolizing traveling across the U.S.A., and of a rocket launch depicting traveling across the universe to the moon.

The game Orbit the Moon was enjoyed by children of all ages. Give-away prizes consisted of Spacesaver banks made by the cubs of all five dens, plus the star constellation Orion, and miniature American flags symbolizing the planting of the American flag on the moon.

Street, three or four years ago, and had never received the money it had spent, from the state.

The money, Town Manager Morris said, was being withheld because of pollution questions raised by the MDC. The MDC had been writing letters, Stepan Chemicals of Eames Street had been writing letters, and the Town of Wilmington had been writing letters, but Wilmington would not get a refund on its $250,000 until the MDC had approved of the effluent from Stepan Chemicals.

The letters were read by Selectman Boylen, who is a pollution control chemist at MIT. He was the only person who could understand part of the jargon used. Mr. Boylen read the letters as saying that the MDC had approved by an exception, of the effluent, which was above the permissible standards, and that this approval would continue until January 1, 1976, which meant that Wilmington would not get a refund of its money until after that date.

Stepan Chemicals says 'No Problem'

A spokesman for Stepan Chemicals of Eames Street, Wilmington told the Town Crier yesterday morning that there was no problem with the MDC because of effluents going into the Town of Wilmington sewers.

Ron McBrien of Stepan Chemicals told the Town Crier that the company had resolved its problem with the MDC, and that the MDC had approved of the effluent going into the town sewers and the MDC sewers.

In January, McBrien said, he had asked a state official in the water pollution board if Wilmington was getting its refund, and he was told that the official believed this to be so.

Girl Scouts prepare Camp Merrymeeting

TOWN CRIER, MAY 29, 1975

The summer season is almost here, and the Merrimack River Girl Scout Council is offering three day camp staff training sessions in May and early June. New and experienced staff members of the four Girl Scout camps serving the Merrimack Valley are taking the opportunity to get acquainted with the program, the camp site, other staff members and directors of the camps.

The first session was held May 15 at Chelmsford Junior High School. It was an orientation session, in which new staff members met returning members and camp directors, and received manuals, learned how the day camps work, and what facilities and programs are available to them.

The council's director, Ruth Nash of Merrimack was on hand to explain the program and introduce the trainers for the session, camp directors Jeanne Brown of Camp Sacajawea; Lucille Roy of Camp Merrymeeting; Judy Mathieu of Camp Kiwanis; and Penny Turner of Camp Petapaw, with their assistant directors, Veronica Sherman, Elyse Grubia, Claire Agresti and Lydia Slosarik.

Mrs. Lucille Roy of Lawrence and Veronica Sherman of Billerica will again head the staff of Camp Merrymeeting on Pomp's Pond in Andover. They plan to emphasize Bi Centennial crafts and culture in this summer's program.

Camp Merrymeeting has staff members and campers from Andover, Billerica, Lawrence, Methuen, Tewksbury and Wilmington. Last year 277 campers took part in the program, and at least as many are expected to spend part of their summer at Merrymeeting in 1975.

There are still staff openings at

Bertha, the Bartender's Beautiful Baby earns '239

On April 19th and 20th the Sweetheart Plastics Players performed to a sell-out crowd in their own production called, "We Did it Together." The show, which consisted of music, a dramatic play, and a community singalong, was held in the Sweetheart "Canal Club" cafeteria for the benefit of the Regional Health Center in Wilmington building fund.

The music, provided by a host of musicians, ranged from folk to country and western to rock 'n roll, performed by Frank and Mark Sarno, Charlie Weeks, Phil Leavitt, Doug Beek, Roberta Goodhue, Randy Carelli and Jim Lesperance. Barbara Braxten sang two songs, then led the audience in a community sing-along of old favorites such as "Michael Row the Boat Ashore."

Perhaps the highlight of the evening was a play called, "Bertha, the Bartender's Beautiful Baby." The cast, directed by Pem Shober, comprised Phil Leavitt, Alice Modica, Janice Fisher, Randy Carelli, Irwin Patterson, Roberta Goodhue, Bill Moore, Hazel Jeffrey, and Karen Narkewich. There was also a surprise skit featuring Janice Charron and Roger Grimm.

Pem Shober did a beautiful and dramatic reading of Stephen Vincent Benet's poem, "The Mountain Whippoorwill."

After covering expenses, the group of Sweetheart employees donated a check for $239 to the Regional Health Center in Wilmington.

Wildcats rip Tewksbury

A disappointing Wilmington High School baseball season came to a close on a high note Monday as the Wildcats ripped through the Tewksbury Redmen 7 - 3 behind the pitching of lefthander Barry Foster.

The Wildcats scored four first-inning runs to jump out to a 4 - 0 lead. Wilmington then pecked away for three more runs as Foster survived a 'shakey second inning to win easily.

Wilmington's Bob Dorval had the deepest Wildcat drive as he banged a towering double to right centerfield in the third inning. He also made a fine defensive play in the fourth inning when he picked off a sleeping Kevin VonKahle on second base. Dorval's rifle arm took Tewksbury out of a possible big inning. Foster may have been tiring in the final inning as he allowed singles by Bobby Dogerty and Russ Anderson before retiring Chris Leos on a fly to centerfield.

Foster struck out four and walked only two batters as Wilmington finished with a solid victory over Tewksbury. Wilmington lashed ten hits against three Tewksbury pitchers and drove starter and loser Tom Lucciano from the mound in the first inning.

B team tops Framingham

Last Saturday the Wilmington Recreation soccer team faced a tough Framingham squad. The game was a close one all the way, with the edge going to Wilmington.

The first half was a defensive struggle, with no scoring. When the first half ended the score was deadlocked, 0 - 0.

The first 10 minutes of the second half was played identical to the first half. After that Wilmington jumped on Framingham's mistakes. The first mistake gave Wilmington a direct kick (penalty). The kick was taken by Captain Greg Wood; the ball passed up to Captain Bill Gallagher. Gallagher put on a burst of speed and blazed in for a shot which beat the Framingham net minder.

The second goal came about 10 minutes later. Chris Briggs controlled the ball, he put a pass across the middle; the pass was tipped by Jim Bruce over to Eric Wood who wasted no time and fired the ball into the open corner for the 2 - 0 shut-out win.

Again this week the defense of Wilmington was solid, holding its opponents to no score. The shutout was the second in two games and the fourth for the year. Of course, a lot of credit has to be directed to goalie Pete MacMillan who is a major factor in the shutouts.

Next Saturday Wayland comes to Wilmington for a 3:30 p.m. game at the North Intermediate School.

Softball squad begins workouts

The Wilmington Recreation Department's entry in the Northeast Baseball League will conduct its initial tryout for the 28 boys signed up this Friday night at the North Intermediate School field. Manager Dick Mulno and his coaches Tom Woods and Mike Sughrue will have ten days in which to pare the squad down to 15 in preparation for their home opener on Tuesday, June 10 with Lowell.

The Recs will play an 18 game league slate in the Northern division and an additional four non-league encounters for a total 22 games this season. The complete schedule follows:

All participants who are returning will have their initial practice on Tuesday June 10 at town park beginning at six o'clock with the Tiggers and Sluggers. The 76'ers and Streakers will take the field at 7:30.

The older girls (17 and over) will have their first workout at town park on June 3 beginning at 7:30 p.m. Fourteen young ladies have signed up and it is hoped that a slate of games will be scheduled later next month.

Following that date the beaches will have lifeguard supervision on a seven day a week schedule.

Wilmington plans swimming lessons

The Wilmington Recreation Department has formed plans for this summer's Red Cross approved swimming lessons to be offered at the town beach at Silver Lake.

Parents wishing to register their child for the youth classes must be present Sunday, June 8 in the recreation office from 9 a.m. to noon. The office is located in the former Mildred Rogers School next to the town beach.

Beginners lessons for youth between the ages of six and nine will be conducted in all of the three sessions. Each session will run for two weeks with starting and ending dates as follows: first session, Monday, June 30 to Friday, July 11; second session, Monday, July 14 to Friday, July 25; third session, Monday, July 28 to Friday, August 8.

Classes will be conducted rain or shine unless there is a thunder storm taking place.

A new addition will be a course for intermediates between the ages of nine and 12. Registrants must be holders of a Red Cross beginners certificate or have the ability to swim 25 yards in deep water. This class will be held in the first session.

The advanced lifesaving course for those ages 16 and over will be held on Sunday and Wednesday evenings from 6 to 8, beginning July 6 and ending August 10.

Hopetuls for this course must be able to swim 550 yards on their stomach in less than 15 minutes.

Sign up for this course will take place on Sunday, June 8, from 9 a.m. to noon in the rec office.

Determining date for eligibility in all classes is January 1, 1975.

Pee Wee B (3-1-1): The Boston Gillette Blades knicked the Wildcats 4 - 2. Richie McHugh scored on assist from Bobby Williams; chuckie McNeil scored single handed.

Last Sunday Coach Newark's Wildcats held the Lowell Bank and Trust's interest in a 4 - 4 tie.

Jeff Stouffer scored first singled handed in the second period. Bobby Williams scored next on assist from Ronnie Greenberg and Richie McHugh. Defenseman George Boudreau, replacing injured Dave Elliott, scored next on assist from Joby Duggan and Bobby Williams.

Chuckie McNeil scored to tie on assist from Bobby Williams. Next Billerica.

Next game with league leading, undefeated Reading at 2:30 p.m. on Saturday, May 31.

Squirt A (2-1-2): The Wilmington Squirt A's bounced back after a loss to Reading last week to tie Stoneham 1 - 1. The game turned out to be a superb two way effort.

Stoneham opened the scoring at 5:08 of period number one, but Ed Harding tied the score with a long shot from the left side at 10:16 of period one.

Ed Laquidara put on an outstanding show in net, turning away 19 of 20 shots. Strong defensive play led by Captain John Palmer provided good support in front of the Wilmington net. Bob Curran and Ray Durling turned in excellent two-way performances as they led the attack a number of times toward the Stoneham net.

The penalty killing of Jeff Brown and Ed Harding was again outstanding as this unit has yet to be scored upon in shorthanded situations through the first five games.

The Falcons gave the Dolphins their first defeat 12 - 8. In relief Frank Carter was the winning hurler. Richie Cole hit a home run. Offensive stars were Todd Lyon, Greg Cullen and Marsha Jacobs.

Darren Young had nine strikeouts to lead the Penguins to a 15 - 3 rout over the Hawks. John Banks, Mark Tilletson and Young combined for 15 hits.

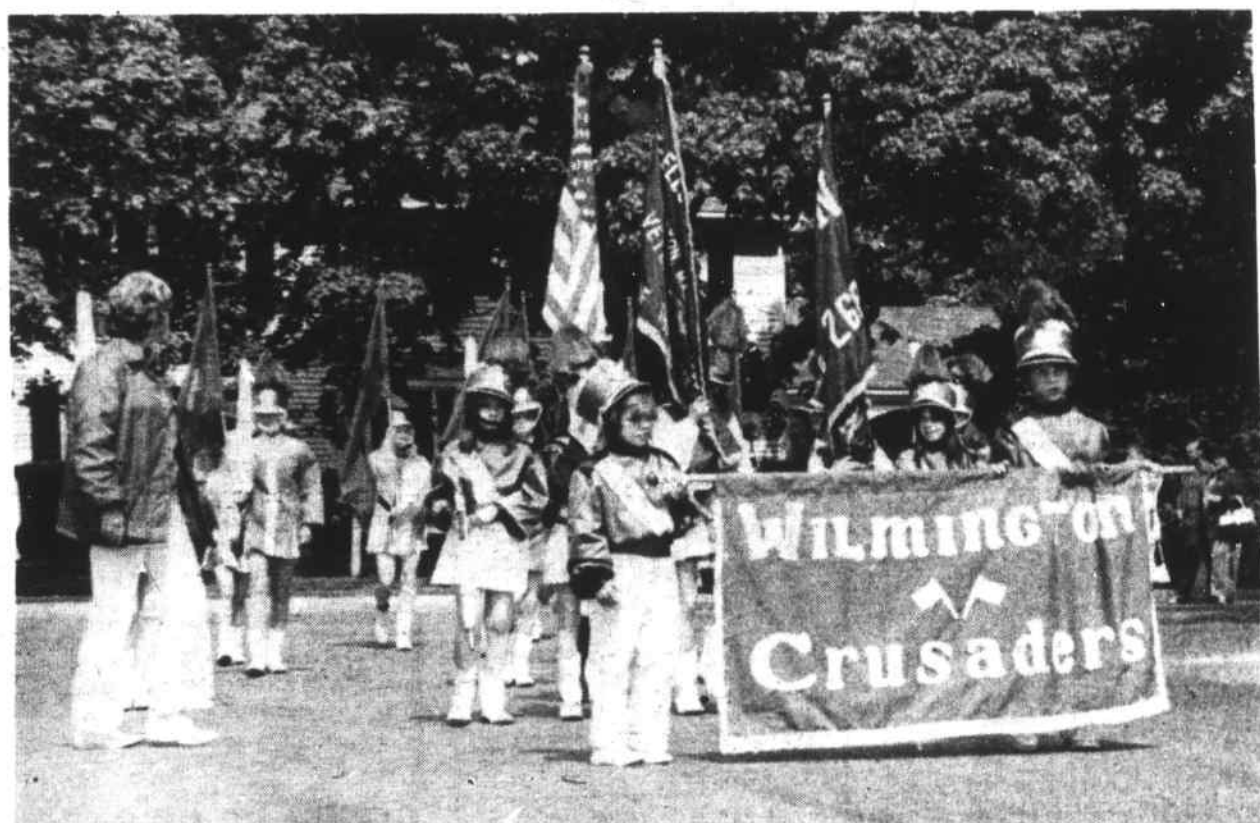

In game two on Saturday, the Ravens outslugged the Seals 25 - 14. Bill Jencyk was the winning pitcher. Micalizzi, Silverhaus and Gallant all had homers for the Ravens.

Finally, the Sharks belted the Crows 23 - 8. Homers were smashed by D. Allard, Larry Grant, D. Sullivan and Sean Neill.

CATV rate increase is delayed

Representatives of the Colonial Cablevision of Woburn presented arguments, in a packed selectmen's meeting, Tuesday, as to why the company should be allowed to increase its subscriber subscription from $5 a month to $7.50.

The selectmen, on their part (or some of them) presented arguments for cancelling the license granted to Colonial Cablevision three years ago. The net result was no decision - until the next regularly scheduled meeting of the Wilmington Selectmen. The license had been issued by the selectmen several years ago, with a definite schedule, presented by the company. At about the same time a license was issued by the Billeria selectmen for that town, and a few months previously one had been issued by the selectmen of Burlington.

The president of Colonial Cablevision is George Duffy. Several Woburn businessmen were present for the discussion, seemingly having an interest in the company, which is a subsidiary of the TV company owned by the Providence Journal.

Duffy told the selectmen that there were difficulties in financing. There should be 100 homes to a mile, he said, with at least two thirds subscribing. In Wilmington the number was less, and only about one third subscribed. He named, at one point, the number of subscribers as 71.

Selectman James Banda was outspoken, in saying that the Cablevision Company had not lived up to the standards it had set, when the license was granted torney, and Jeff Forbes, Mass. TV officials. Chris Bachman, of the Finance Committee can be seen in back, and at far right is Dick Sabino, also of Colonial Cablevision.

12 Webelos become Troop 322 boy scouts

Twelve members of Tewksbury's Cub Scout Pack 84 became Troop 322 Boy Scouts in ceremonies in the South Tewksbury Methodist Church May 27. It was a candle light service.

Eddie Doucette, Billy Butt, Kevin Barry, David Ellwood, Danny Gallagher, Robbie Driscoll,

Frank Connolly, Scoutmaster and Senior Patrol Leader Jim Connolly and five other Boys Scouts welcomed the new Scouts.

As the new scouts repeated the Scout Oath, and the Scout Creed, Scouts of Troop 322 lit candles, in sequence, in an impressive ceremony.

John Barry, 900 Old Shawsheen Street, retiring treasurer and pack committeeman for four years, received an engraved plaque.

The 15 Cub Scouts who marched in the Tewksbury Memorial Day Parade received ribbons presented by the Tewksbury Patriotic Activities Committee.

Five Cubs received the Arrow of Light award, Eddie Doucette, Billy Finn, John Haslam, John Michaud and Brian MacAuley.

Larry Toth, 448 Shawsheen Street, was introduced as the new Assistant Cub Master.

Summer activities are to be planned in the next committee meeting, which will be June 10 at the home of Bill Lindsay.

about three years ago. Banda asked where the cablevision was in the schools, and that they should be in the Town Hall too, for the benefit of Wilmington people.

One point, made by Selectman Boylen, was that for the money the company was seeking from subscribers a better TV program could be enjoyed. Ninety dollars, Boylen observed, could buy an excellent antenna.

Chris Bachman, of the Wilmington Finance Committee, made more than a few remarks. Mr. Bachman, of course, is one of Wilmington's engineers.

On Saturday, April 19, Margaret D'Errico, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Michael D'Errico of 2 Gowing Rd., Wilmington became the bride of Arthur W. Hogan, son of Mr. and Mrs. John A. Hogan Jr. of 9 Jay Street, Tewksbury.

The Rev. Father Francis Mackin performed the double ring ceremony before the altar of St. Thomas Church.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore an a-line gown of silk organza with empire bodice featuring re-embroidered Alencon lace on the bodice, sleeves and cathedral train. Her elbow length veil of silk illusion fell from a headpiece of Alencon lace and she carried a bouquet of white roses, pink miniature carnations, snowflake poms, stephanotis and baby's breath.

Diane McCarthy, sister of the bride served as matron of honor while Kathy Andre of Lowell and Blanche Hogan, also of Lowell acted as bridesmaids.

John Hogan served his brother as best man while ushering duties were in charge of Richard Andre of Lowell, Dan Catalano of New York, Mike D'Errico of Saugus and Warren Gray of Tewksbury.

Immediately following the ceremony a reception was held at the K of C Hall in Wilmington where Gail D'Errico of Saugus circulated the guest book.

For traveling the new Mrs. Hogan chose a peach pant suit with white accessories.

She is a 1971 graduate of Wilmington High School and is employed at Dymo Graphic Systems in Wilmington.

The groom is a 1969 graduate of Tewksbury High School and is also employed at Dymo Graphic Systems.

Following a wedding trip through the Pocono Mountains, the couple is now residing in Derry, N.H.

CFFER organizing campaign against Reading Light rates

An organized group of Reading Light customers, from Reading, North Reading and Wilmington are planning a campaign for a flat rate structure; a lower rate for the first power consumed, called a lifeline service; and a lowering of the profit margin of Reading Municipal Light Department.

A letter recently published in the Town Crier and other publications stressed the objectives of the group, who call themselves the Consumers for Fair Electric Rates Organization, with an acronym of CFFER.

Their letter to the elected officials of Reading Light was ignored, CFFER reports. Their charge says that "three elected officials of the Reading Light Board have seemingly adopted the 'ignore them and they will go away' tactic." They quote John Crocker, chairman of the Reading Light Board as saying over the telephone on May 16 that he did not recognize CFFER and would not respond to questions from the group.

Mr. Crocker did say, CFFER reports, that he would answer questions from an individual. This is a tactic the CFFER's report, that is often used by authoritarian powers to break down the power of a united body. It is the power and attitude of a "power and profit hungry big business."

The group says it understands the board is responding more to the influence of Norbert Rhinerson, the RMLD general manager, and not to the public who elected the board.

At a meeting of the Unitarian Church, in Reading, on May 20 the CFFER decided on a petition campaign, which it will try for in Reading, North Reading, Lynnfield and Wilmington.

The next meeting of CFFER is to be at the Unitarian Church (Woburn Street, corner of Summer Ave.) in Reading, on June 4, at 7:30 p.m. All customers of RMLD are encouraged to attend.

Smith's Bakery suit settled

The Town of Wilmington, several years ago took by eminent domain some houses on Grove Avenue, which had been changed to apartment houses. One of those was the former Smith's Bakery, owned by Charles Lastoria of Back Bay.

Tuesday evening the board of selectmen agreed to settle, out of court, for the damages, amounting to $28,000. The vote was unanimous.

Letters

Dear Larz:

During the past week and a half, I have passed Wilmington common several times and I must say that I am appalled at the litter that now "graces" it. It would be excusable perhaps, if there were no trash barrels around, but with several right there on the common, what is the excuse? If you will pardon the expression, it "tees me off" to see the way our young people have no respect for property, whether it be private or public.

This generation blames us for the water and air pollution of today, but what about litter pollution? Each year it becomes worse and worse. Is it because the parents today do not teach their children respect of property and pride in their city or town?

Perhaps our generation did help to pollute the air and the water and I am not excusing that, but it certainly was not an intentional thing or an act of individual people, but more of giant industry which an ordinary person has very little control over. Litter, however, is caused by individual people who are just too lazy to pick up after themselves and this type of pollution certainly need not be!!

It is not just the common that is a mess, but litter is everywhere in this town and country. I don't ever remember it being as bad as it has become in the last several years and it seems to progressively worsen every year.

Come on kids, from 2 to 20 and you adults too, for a lot of you are not blameless! Pick up after yourselves! Show some pride in this great town of Wilmington. A town that spends a great deal more time and money on recreation than many surrounding towns certainly deserves a lot more appreciation and respect than Wilmington is getting now!

I have tried to bring my own children up not to be "litter bugs," but the best way to do this is to set an example. Clean up, shape up, or ship out, we don't need litterers here!!!

Sincerely,
MaryAnn Ackerman

Dear Larz:

Many things have been said about the young people in Wilmington. Too often they are criticized on what they do and accomplish.

Recently, as you know, the senior class at WHS sponsored a blood drive. This has been given very little notice. I would like to offer my congratulations to the Wilmington senior class and to the junior and sophomore students who gave a great deal of time to this effort and to the Wilmington High School staff for assistance.

Many people living in Wilmington do not know the full extent of the blood drive.

I get very upset when I hear people say that our future is in jeopardy if our young people continue in their ways. I believe that our young people show a great interest in the future. If they continue to act as they have in sponsoring a successful blood drive with the interest of the whole town, I'm sure we have nothing to worry about.

In closing, I would like say thank you, senior class for your life saving gift.

Sincerely,
Joe Mantini

Dear Larz:

The coaching staff and varsity baseball team of Wilmington High School would like to express appreciation to Rocco DePasquale for his generosity and to his staff, for the hospitality and patience shown us during our weekly meetings at his restaurant.

Every week, our "Rocco Club" convenes at the restaurant and Rocco awards the outstanding player of the week a steak dinner and other outstanding players, who are determined by a point system, and are given a free pizza.

The whole team enjoys the meetings at Rocco's and looks forward to them each week. They have added much to the spirit of the team and provided an outlet where we can relax and unwind from the pressures on us during the games.

We are sincerely grateful to Mr. DePasquale for allowing us to use his restaurant as a meeting place. He has helped make the season more enjoyable for all concerned.

Respectfully,
James M. Gillis

Dear Larz:

The Varsity Baseball Team would like to issue a challenge to all former varsity baseball players of Wilmington High School to an alumni game on Saturday, June 7, at 10:30 a.m. at the high school field. If there is enough interest, the jayvees would like to play some "old timers" (pre 1960).

Anyone interest should start loosening up the old arm and call Jim Gillis at the curriculum center, 658-4580.

Last year's result was Alumni 4, Varsity 2. The Alumni were led by the pitching of Kevin Field (1962) and the hitting of Jim Melzar (1961). Gerry Scratch O'Reilly (1950) and Pete Emery (1965).

Sincerely,
James M. Gillis

The Colonial Arts Fair held in Wilmington and the subsequent parade and capping of the May Pole is not to be denied a rousing "cheer" on the part of those who participated and worked so diligently in the preparation of the various booths, etc. it was an exciting day with a thousand marching Minutemen and no more than 400 spectators.

Anything that could ever be conceived as in the tradition of Judeo-Christian morality, I'm afraid, was relatively submerged and moral influence of the men who held together our "American Dream" was almost non-existent...the Wilmington BiCentennial Committee had but to look at the previous ceremonies at the Old North Church and Lexington and Concord to set a theme of dignity and reverence.

Many people worked very hard on the Historical Church exhibit at the High School grounds and the exhibit was set so far aside from the other exhibits they were therefore very sparsely attended.

It was more than disappointment to watch all this brilliant display and then at the acting out of the liberty pole incident not to have an invocation and blessing on our country given by one of the

The air we breath is important. To keep it clean, car manufacturers have been installing emission control systems.

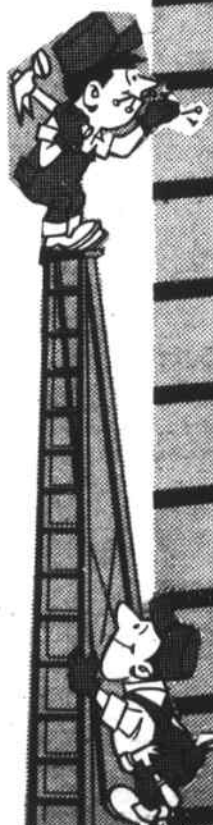

These cut down on air pollution by controlling the gases formed by burned and partially burned fuel and air. Emission systems are necessary to prevent evaporation of gasoline into the air we breath. Exhaust fumes are made up of unburned hydrocarbons, carbon monoxide and oxides of nitrogen.

Each car, efficiently controlling its own fumes, helps to keep the air we breath healthy.

Keeping your car well tuned and maintained is important for fighting pollution as well as for your own safety, and WILMINGTON FORD, 275 Main St., Rt. 38, Wilmington, 658-6800 has an expert service department to serve your automotive needs. local clergy. When I asked one of the women of the League of Women Voters (and an organizer of the affair) why no minister was present the reply was given rather sharply, "Anne is that All you think about...we didn't even consider it!"

"NO" it is not All I think about, but certainly it is the First thing I think about, and certainly should be included at a public ceremony such as the one we had here in Wilmington on Saturday.

After checking with a local minister and member of the Council of Churches I was told they were not invited to participate at Rotary Park.

At the ceremonies at Rotary Park it was as if the church and its influence on our town did not exist, but they do us wrong who think that we shall not go on fighting the good fight.

Fr. Leahy of St. Dorothy's parish read a beautiful speech, to an audience of fewer than 10 people at the tent chapel...it was a stirring statement of where we are at this time in American history...he stated, "American's are becoming so arrogant in not calling on God that we (that includes Wilmington folks!) are surely destined to meet the fate of the Roman Empire if we do not turn back from our 'secular humanism' and call upon God Almighty."

The Wilmington Council of Churches exhibit

ALFRED AND DIANE FAIRBROTHER: Of 3 Fairfield Avenue.

Something old and something new may be describing the Rev. George Taylor, a week ago, in the exhibit behind the High School.

The Congregational Parsonage has a few beaver type hats, some old pantaloons, and an old frock coat, up in the attic, and George Taylor donned all, for the occasion. Mrs. Taylor sewer an appropriate shirt, (which thus was new) and the Rev. George was all decked out to participate in the Council of Churches exhibit, behind the High School.

Others took part, coming from other churches. William Noll, organist at St. Dorothy's Church played an organ that was over 100 years old, to the enthusiastic assistance of Marie Fantasia and Ann Rich.

Alfred and Diane Fairbrother, also of St. Dorothy's participated in a duet, with guitar assistance. They perform regularly at St. Dorothy's.

Lest the reader think that only St. Dorothy's and the Congregational Church participated, let it be said the Baptist Church, the Wilmington Methodist Church, and St. Thomas all had their parts. It is just that the writer wasn't present at that time.

Bits & Pieces

Flowers-garden trampled

On the Saturday before Memorial Day, Wilmington Park Department employees planted over 50 flowering plants in the circle around the flagpole on the common. Sometime between then and the following Monday morning, all but nine of the plants had been either uprooted or trampled. Undaunted, park employees planted more prior to the Memorial Day observances.

One day last week, Attorney Joe Courtney of Andover Street invited members of the Wilmington Police Department to view his garden which had been trampled by horses.

On the other hand

Wilmington Kiwanians have extended thanks to members of the Key Club who assisted at the recent horse show held in North Wilmington. The assistants included: Mike Abel, Gary Gable, Roger Hamson, John Imbimbo and Ed Reynolds.

There is a move afoot to form a Keywanettes group; interested girls should contact Pam Chase.

Assisting at the highly successful senior class bloodmobile held recently at the high school were the above mentioned students and George Lingenfelter and Joe Szczepk.

Students at the Woburn Street School have issued an invitation to all local senior citizens to view their version of Fidler on the Roof.

Last Tuesday, high school students on their lunch break assisted a Wilmington woman at collecting cans and bottles which had been littering the common. The bags of debris (six of them) were later deposited at the town hall in an attempt to draw official attention to the problem of public drinking.

Harry Cutter of Belmont Ave., Wilmington has returned home from Mass. Eye and Ear where he had been confined following surgery. Harry retired two years ago following 30 years of service with the Boston and Maine. His wife, Lizzie, was for several years the well-loved manager of the kitchen at Wilmington High School.

Beyond the call

It would become everyone in Wilmington to back the fund raising efforts of the Crusaders in their attempt to accept an invitation to march in a parade at Prince Edward Island, Canada in August. The Crusaders are (so far) the only Massachusetts group to be honored by such an invitation.

Perhaps, last week John Lucci went slightly beyond the call of duty in his support of the group. Two members of the Crusaders stood outside Mr. Lucci's Lowell Street establishment selling raffle tickets. The prize offered? - Three minutes free shopping - at another supermarket.

It happened in May

Ground was broken for Wilmington's Jehovah's Witnesses Hall on May 17, 1960; the once well-known Silver Lake Betterment Association would have been 24 years old on May 23; a retirement party was held for Wilmington Superintendent of Schools, Stephen G. Bean on May 17, 1961. Mr. Bean retired following 26 years of service. On May 26, two or possible three years ago, Bob Reid of Lang Street, Wilmington (then a Little League pitcher) pitched a shutout, honoring his father's (John) birthday.

According to

According to the information at hand, Helen (Lane) and Arthur Carver of Chestnut St., Wilmington will observe their twenty-third wedding anniversary on June 1 and Denise and Arthur Nutile of Main Street will have made it to three on June 4.

Flea market

The Wilmington Spotlighters will sponsor their annual flea market at Colonial Mall on Saturday, May 31.

$1,000 for WRHC

A check for $1,000 has been presented to the Regional Health Center in Wilmington by Wilmington Rotarians. The check represented benefits from the recent carnival which was conducted to assist the hospital building fund.

Anyone wishing to insert an item in Bits & Pieces is urged to call 658-2346 days, or 658-2907 nights and weekends. Ask for B.D.

AN OLD BARN GETS A NEW ROOF: The Wolfe family, on Woburn Street, lives in the old Eames Homestead, which dates back to 1723, when the home was built by Ephraim Buck.

shortly afterwards, it is to be presumed, the barn was built - say 250 years ago.
